

MITCH WHIDDEN

Dropped out of Liberty University in Lynchburg, Virginia in January or February of 1997. This was right after Kim and Ronnie were up there.

Kim and Ronnie drove thru Lynchburg from Portsmouth, Virginia where Ron had tests for his sleep disorder.

Ronnie was interested in enrolling in Liberty University. They spent one night with Mitch and his wife and two children.

Dr. Wilmington of Liberty University (804) 582-2274.

Kim says they were there the 24th or 25th January, 1997. Stayed either one or two nights. It was going to snow, icing up. Ronnie and Mitch talked about school and dreams. Dr. Wilmington does not know where Whidden is at present.

Within next two weeks Whidden came to Camp Lejeune. Kim was not there. Ronnie called Kim and said guess who's here? Mitch - Kim did not think about this at all.

Dr. Wilmington told Kim he really could not tell her anything because school confidentiality.
