Dear Ted:

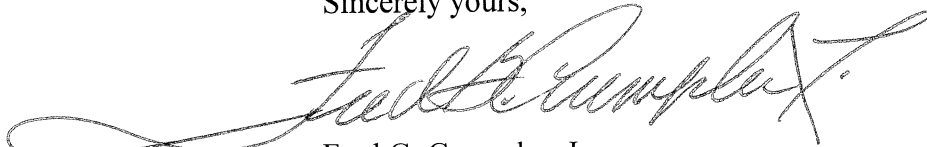

This correspondence is in response to your recent request for your discovery documents. Since there are four large boxes of discovery, I called Ms. Danielle Carmen to determine specifically what she needed. She stated that she did not need anything and that she already had the documents which were necessary to pursue your case.

I explained to her that the files were always available upon request and would be kept available.

If you personally need any of these documents, please specify exactly what it is since it would be an expensive and time consuming project to reproduce all of these boxes of documents.

In extending my kindest regards, I remain,

Sincerely yours,

Fred G. Crumpler, Jr.
